ably buy. What can we do about this girl? — IS-TRAUGHT

Dear Dis: Someone out to point out to the "heiress" that she inherited five grand — not five million.

Let her know that the privilege of "doing as she pleases" entails full responsibility for herself. Insist that she get a job and kick in for room and board.

Dear Ann Landers: When we moved out here to this so-called toney suburb I was enthusiastic about becoming friendly with the neighbors. In fact, I confess I was concerned that they might not take me in.

Well, we've been taken in all right — so thoroughly and completely that I am trying to figure a way out. There are coffee klatches twice a day — and some of the girls get together for cocktails at 4:30. This is in addition to a weekly bridge club, and a sewing circle and garden club. I am clubbed to death and I can't take it.

Now, how do I unwind from the rat race? Being the newest one in the bunch makes it very difficult. I don't want to appear ungracious but I simply must get out. Please help.—CHARLOTTE'S WEBB

Dear Charlotte: Unwind one thing at a time. Cut the coffee klatches to one instead of two. And skip the martinis. Get too busy for the bridge game, then drop the other jazz. Before you know it you'll be able to call your soul your own — just like it used to be.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
